Annotation

The Conference focuses primarily on students in doctoral programs of Social Sciences, but other young and early-stage researchers are welcome.

Thematic sections are created based on individual registration forms, in which the Conference participants will present their contributions. After each presentation, a discussion will follow.

Presentation manuscripts will undergo an anonymous review process and, if accepted, will be published in the electronic conference proceedings.

The authors of the best contributions in each thematic section will be allowed and asked to publish their texts in the reviewed journal Civilia. The Journal Civilia is included in the list of reviewed journals of the Government Council for Science, Research and Innovation and the ERIH and EBSCO database. Whether the text will be accepted is subject to the Scientific Committee of the Conference and the reviewer of the text.

Please note that the article cannot be published simultaneously in the proceedings and journal.

Thematic section of the conference

Papers that accentuate the main theme of the conference Research Paradigms in Social Sciences are welcome. Papers are expected to analyze selected issues, especially in the following social science disciplines: political science, economics, philosophy, ethics, religion, history, sociology, psychology, and didactics of social sciences.

Organizational instructions

The conference takes place in the premises of the Faculty of Education of Palacký University in Olomouc, Žižkovo náměstí 5, 779 00 Olomouc.

Authors interested in attending the Conference will submit an annotation of their paper both in Czech and English. Subsequently, the organizational and scientific committee of the conference will assert the paper to a suitable thematic section.

Authors are guaranteed to be given 10 minutes each for presenting their papers. Presenters can utilize a computer and data projector.

The Conference Organizing Committee reserves the right to reject contributions that, based on the annotation in the registration form, will not correspond to the thematic focus of the conference.

More information will be sent to the participants after their registration form is delivered. The completed registration form is to be sent at: ksv.upol@seznam.cz.

It is required to pay the Conference fee to take part in the Conference and possibly publish the paper. The Conference fee is set at 700 CZK and it is mandatory to pay this fee on the day of the Conference.

Non-cash payment of the fee is possible only after the prior consent of the conference organizing committee. Paying a fee in a currency other than Czech crowns is not feasible.

Guidelines for preparation of the paper

Papers are expected to range between 5–15 standard pages of A4 format, notes, and a list of used literature included. The papers are obliged to contain basic information about the author and provide contact details, as well as annotation and keywords, both in Czech and English. Authors are exhorted to adhere to the citation standards ČSN ISO 690 and ČSN ISO 690–2. Authors are urged to strictly follow the template for paper, which will be sent to them once their registration forms are delivered. Fulfilling these formal requirements is an important criterion in the review process.

Catering

Meals aren't provided, however, light refreshments can be purchased in the Fresh-Up bistro located on the ground floor of the faculty. Since the bistro doesn't accept non-cash payments, we recommend that the participants have a small amount of cash prepared for refreshments, if they wish to buy them.

We look forward to your participation!

Doc. PhDr. Karel Konečný, CSc.
Head of the Department of Social Sciences

Mgr. Tomáš Hubálek, Ph.D.
Chairman of the organizing committee
